

Miss Mitford.

AL/342

CULHAM,
NEW ELTHAM,
KENT.

Dec. 13th 1907.

Dear Miss Stacey.

It is so kind of you all to want me to work with you & it would be most ungracious of me to refuse, but I feel very incapable - and would be so much happier both in obscurity. I should

WILLIAM
WILLIAM WILSON
WENT

like to see you about the names of speakers for the at home. be arranged them all beforehand. It would be a good thing if this c.^d be done, wouldn't it? & their names announced ⁱⁿ the previous number of W. F. Mrs. Levinson speaks well, I hear. She was at the last party. also Mrs. Smedley of the Lycium, & a Dr. Lettbridge & Dr. Durand. The latter lives in Kent, but came up on purpose for me & Mr. Patten. & gave an excellent address. Also Mr.

Andrews, formerly head teacher of the Maiden Vol High School for girls. These people w^d. take a certain amount of time to arrange for, but its wholly well worth it. Will the Ladies Society stand the postage if I correspond?
Do. love to hear some of yr.

the paper. You will tell me all this on Monday. Also, would it be possible to have a monthly meeting of Suffrage workers? - Those who organize, speak & write - then be c^d all meet & discuss - & It w^d be an immense help to us all - I am sure. Do work this if possible -

Yrs Sincerely

Weline. B. Putford

Fawcett Library
27 Wilfred Street
London S.W.1.

247C