Dear Mrs Ramelson,

Many thanks for your letter of November 1st, and the cheque for 30/- for your annual subscription to the Library. I enclose a receipt.

I am so glad the periodicals have been of great use and interest to you, and shall look forward to receiving them back when you can make arrangements for their transport.

In the meantime, I am sending you the books for which you ask, except for the Women's Co-operative Guild publication, "Why Working Women Need the Vote", 1897, which I am sorry to say we do not possess. William Count's "Electoral Reform" is, as you see, in a volume of ϕ bound pamphlets, and we should like to have this back fairly soon, as there might be something else in the volume required by another borrower.

Actually, we have acquired two odd numbers of "The Woman's Dreadnought", No.13 for June 13th, 1914, and No.42, for January, 1915. I do not suppose that so small an example of the paper would be much use to you, but we will gladly send them if you would care to have them.

My mother is pretty well, thank you, considering her great age (96). I do hope you yourself are keeping well.

Yours sincerely,

Librarian
