Nenton). So I am left maidens. I am going to try Dolores' young note aged 18.

What is mama going to do this winter? I am sure it would be good for her to come out again. Only I am rather nervous about the infinite multitude of stops she goes up & down in our abode. Do you think it could have been that that detached her retina? If I cut ball wd take the Henriette it would be perfect.

This is a request to make out a cheque to Hope Brothers Ltd for £4.5.8 and to insert ^{it} into the enclosed envelope and post as soon as possible. You have I think some money of mine in hand so please put this down to my account. With the vagaries of exchange now-a-days it is too difficult paying bills in England.

I wonder how your health is getting on and whether you don't think it would do it good to spend the winter at Roquebrune. It would be too heavenly if you did. I am quite sure you could get a permit to travel. The weather has turned rather icy in our mountain resort and we shall be leaving next week and be back at La Souco about the 23^d Sept. It has been a very successful stay in most respects. the only flaw being poor Jean's health which seems very bad. The children have both been wonderfully well. I had a nice letter from Pray the other day. I am glad she is keeping well. She gave me a very comic account of the antics of Duncan, Clive and Adrian. But nothing about James. Also I have had no news of Lytton for ages - nor of the Rendel boys. I hope to goodness they haven't recovered enough to go out again!

The turn that Suffrage has taken is very wonderful isn't it? I have heard from Beatrice who is rather quaint upon the subject. I wrote to her about Mary. I imagine it must have been rather a shock to them. But of course they have all taken it like angels. Beatrice writes that of course she can't be very intimate with a canon of the Church of England but he is broad minded, most anxious to be friendly and she likes him. The 5 step daughters - three grown up & two at school, are also very welcoming.

I wrote to Ralph and asked whether he could spend a day or two with me on his way back. I should like to see him so much.

Beatrice Morgan-Browne has wed an ancient - old gentleman of at least 65 left a widower 4 months since. She has begged for Dolores who is going to her. They
