Dear Sir

Not having heard from you since the I paid into Coutts, the 4.000 I suppose that you have received it, if there has been any little deduction to make on account of value of money, of course we shall make it good.
I have sold all the bronzes and another french picture
'Les petites Artistes' of Mme Chosson - I am sorry

That the drawing by Madame Rosa Bonheur has been lithographed as of course it diminishes its value, still I know a Gentleman who is willing to give 50 £. for it in spite of that, if the party who sent it here is disposed to part with it for that sum, and really that is enough under the circumstances. What is to be done with those large pictures? I am told that they have already been exhibited at the Louvre, is it so? We are not selling much this year -

Your early reply about R. Bonheur's picture will oblige dear Sir

Yours faithfully
(Mrs) Elizabeth Murray - (a clever amateur artist)
