Dear Miss Palliser

I am afraid to tell you the truth for we are doing nothing. Some are away, some ^(a few) are always busy with politics - that is Mr. Faser and Mr. Ross who never come to the committee meetings; and I expect Mr. Griffiths is working.
 Westfield

I never have anything to do with elections as I belong to no party. I don't think they would take the slightest notice of Women's Suffrage as they are all keen on nothing but Chinese & Aborigines Tariff Reform and the Education Bill about in the order I place them.
Fred Goddard always seems to like to get out of the question if possible.
I will try and get the question asked with regard to Mr Hoare and Sir Charles Dalrymple if Sir Charles is able to come. Last week he was too ill. Our election Day is next Friday. Had the election been less close to Christmas we might have done something but it is a very bad time everyone especially women we so hope there is no enthusiasm here either yours truly

Mr. J. Hoosach.
Felix Colbold won't commit himself either way.
