

The Midnight Meetings

Prof. W. Mikes Esq. M.P.

Sir,

Allow me to invite your attention to the enclosed Statement relative to this Movement.

As it is intended to continue the Meetings, upwards of £1,000 will shortly be needed. It is hoped that at least 100 females may be rescued during the next

3 months, each of whom will cost the Managers £6. Other expenses, such as additional furniture for the Homes, Printing, hire of Meeting Room, &c. must be incurred.

As every female who wishes to leave a degraded course, should have the opportunity of doing so, I would ask for your aid.

I am, Sir,
Your obed^t. Servant,
Theophilus Smith
Hon^y. Secy.

27. Red Lion Sq. W.C.
London.
