Dear Philippa,

I heard the good news about Ray & Casarck this p.m. at the office, and heard the well going down there at once & make preliminary arrangements. If I can be of any use speaking for her let me know I am fairly well next week and after that she may be able to go & speak for herself.

The great thing now is to induce her to stay in bed & keep warm "Dear Lady go home & keep quiet!"

Always ever affectionately

M. G. Fawcett
