MISS F. STERLING,

25, VICTORIA STREET, WESTMINSTER,
LONDON, S.W.

Dec. 3rd, 1907.

Dear Miss Strachey,

Our Sub-Committee of Organization which has charge of the arrangements for the evening reception on January 29th next met to-day and unanimously agreed to invite yourself, Miss Bompas and Miss Dimock as representing the London Society to join them in forming a Sub-Committee for the details of the reception. May I hope that you will all be kindly willing to serve?

My Committee understands that the London Society will kindly make themselves responsible for the hospitality in connection with our quarterly Council Meeting on the same day, but they do not propose to trouble the London Society with any arrangements as to room, etc., in which to hold the meeting.

Believe me,

Yours sincerely,

pp. F. STERLING.
