

ad 135 P.S.

Sick

May 18
Wiverton Acre,
Plympton.

A4/258

[1907]

Dear Miss Strachey,

I expect you will have heard that my dear cousin Edmund Garrett died on Friday. [1907]

I shall be so much obliged if you would attend to the enclosed when you have time (Tuesday being well over), and send the writer a few back numbers of the

Recall, the name of Miss Blackburn's book, also the address of the little International W.S.
paper

Jus Suffragii, edited by Miss Trauers, 92 Kruiskade Rotterdam.

and a few pamphlets.

She might also be told of our projected, <sup>monthly</sup> paper.

Please forgive me for troubling you

Yours sincerely

W. Fawcett