My dear Miss Shackley,

I have just come back from our office and was very sorry. We were not surprised, to hear that you are still not at all well and that you are very much run down by all the strain of the last fortnight. I am writing now officially as Chairman of the ex. com: I ask you to take at least a week, or longer, should it be required, before you try to resume work. If you could get a few days real rest now, I feel you would be able to return in a little time with strength renewed but that it would be most unwise to attempt a return to work before you are fit for it. I hope Mr. and Mrs. Strachey is well and that you have had no more cases of illness.

I was at Cambridge (Newnham) on Sat. and Sunday. It is quite delightful to hear all about the enthusiasm of our students for W. S. They have had a self denial week and have raised £20 which is coming to the N.U.

Ever yours Sincerely

W. J. Sawcett
