My dear Mr Fawcett.

Pray by all means make the alterations we have suggested so clearly in my prospectus. I am glad to think you will be wiser to write & reprint it. in this - now fitting - form.
I am sure change which I should suspect would be that instead of saying ^{that}

"many" substitute "a large number, & should say "a large proportion". The word "many" actually suggests that the Col servative women are in a minority - & as we are addressing the Primitive League

Dames this w^d be a most unfortunate suggestion!

I think there are as many as I asserted, but I quite agree ~~that it is~~ ^{not} ~~wise~~ ^{to} say so.

The phrase "a large proportion" will ~~be~~ ^{cover} the whole difficulty - But do us a pleasure

(^{and} ~~not~~ ^{as} ~~some~~ ^{other} people please ^{through})

I am so glad to hear from

& dear Mr. Barrett as we were looking to hear from respects of the B. & F. - Your Letter in the Series was splendid & so beautifully in progress!

It was like a quiet, soft lady's voice after a masculine stutter of rage & rebuke, - just announcing all that had been said. - I should not be difficult I should hope to pass the Bill through Committee, ~~but~~ we can only push it into it - see 2. clauses (we have no Amendments, (one thing) now the principle is affirmed & with W. Lawton as Chairman

we were sure to find justice

I fear there is no chance of my being able again to speak at meetings. I don't know that I could not do it - but I fear -

Angry & cannot be now.

When I am up alas! perhaps been like me. W^m Culture Lynons seems the most in comment of those I am

I hope I may be able to convey with her for a had Drawing Room suit. This most unfortunate that poor

Mr. Asheton ditto should be so connected with that horrible story that her eloquent tongue

& sensible pen are unavailable to us - at least with these damns. I have sent Mr

Peckham "Claims" to Mr

Leggmore as an excellent

& wholly unobjectionable paper for circulation in the set.

We shall need to get up a strong petition to the House of Lords wth the Bill ever wth them. Wouldn't it be well to begin at once & collect the best of the names in Miss Becket's Memorial list of last year - omitting about half (who give too much the idea of being "one and with the hijinks & hedges" - & with certainty not be required generally by the letters

- & adding as many as possible of the titled numerous names - Angry. I think I'd be well to get by the 50 best names we can muster. a public time at the paper moment.

I'm very tired about this subject.
Dear Mr Fawcett. My doubt be about the trouble to answer it Ever most
yours

Frances Power (of the)
