March 4th 1910

Dear Madam,

I enclose preliminary agenda for Council Meeting and proof of Report and Balance Sheet. The section dealing with the General Election and several lists cannot be ready until the Council Meeting itself but the Report is being sent now so far as it has gone in order that you may suggest any alterations or additions.

Several Societies sent a general approval of the amendments of the rules proposed by the Re-organisation Committee and these have been placed on this preliminary agenda as proposing or seconding some of them. Will any society not wishing to accept this responsibility kindly inform me so that in the final agenda their names may be omitted?

Please send as soon as possible the names and addresses of delegates.

A copy of the rules is enclosed herewith.

I am,

Yours faithfully,

MARION PHILLIPS
