My dear Mr. Sweett,

1895

As written to you my request is kindly for to make a motion

next Monday as enclosed.

He wishes for my hints from found on the subject. They seem to be all sorts of difficulties in obtaining the Returns we wanted

& his Motion is framed with the advice of the House Office to steer clear of them

If you have any motions on the subject you will straight down in time for Monday's sitting.

Your letter on the ^{Supra} Expound of soul: Ever^r
