Dear Mr. [unreadable] [unreadable]

My Secretary has the mumps or something & so I am reduced to manual labour again. But I sh^d like to say

1. I do not think your view that you sh^d be associated at once nonsense. My view is that we find ourselves faced by a constitutional situation ripe for handling. It is now or never. I have worked the idea out with some fulness in Socialism Just under the House and section.
2. I reviewed Olive Schreiner's book in the Daily Chronicle on the day of publication. I am writing in the British Museum with a very bad pen.

Yours very truly
Edmund Macdonald
