MILNTHORPE.

Dear Mr. Shackey,

Your letter enclosing Mr. W. Mitchell's reached me here this morning.

I still feel disinclined to encourage me set of suffragists from to denounce another set. Though I feel most - strongly the essential immorality of issuing a call to the roughs of doubt to come and "rush" the House of Commons. It may be necessary some time soon to formulate our views on this subject. I feel that law and order are essential to all that makes life worth living and that they are especially and peculiarly vital to women. I shall be thankful if we get over tomorrow without any really great misfortune.

I think Miss Davies was quite right to advise going on with the annual meeting this ^{afternoon}

I can't be there. I hope you will secure Lady Frances.

My address from next Wed. L. Tuesday at 20th will be c/o F. Marshall Esq House End Keswick

Yours Sincerely

M. J. Fawcett
