CONDITIONS OF SALE.

—)o(—

I.—The highest bidder, if in due time, shall be the buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the lot so in dispute shall at the discretion of the Auctioneer, be immediately put up again and resold. The Auctioneer shall have the right to accept or refuse any bidding.

II.—No person to advance less than five per cent. at each bidding.

III.—Each Purchaser shall give to the Auctioneer his or her full name and address, and shall, if required, pay to the Auctioneer, immediately on the fall of the hammer, a deposit to be fixed by the Auctioneer, and any payment so made shall apply to one or more lots bought by the same purchaser, and the balance of the purchase money on the whole of the lots shall be paid before the removal of any one of them.

IV.—All lots are taken to be correctly described, and no error in description, or fault of any kind, shall be allowed to vitiate the sale of any lot, and no compensation shall be required or taken for any such misdescription or fault.

V.—The lots shall be cleared by the purchasers, at their own expense, between the hours of NINE and ONE on the Morning following the Day of Sale, and the Auctioneer will not be responsible for any Lot or Lots not so cleared.

VI.—Upon failure of complying with the above Conditions the money deposited in part payment shall be forfeited; the lot or lots remaining uncleared after the time specified shall be re-sold by public or private sale, without notice, and the deficiency (if any), together with all charges attending such second sale, shall be made good by the defaulter or defaulters at this present sale, but any surplus that may arise therefrom shall belong exclusively to the Vendor.

VII.—The Auctioneer reserves to himself the right to sell in such order as he may think fit, or to alter, divide or withdraw any lot or lots before or during the progress of the Sale, and his decision in any case of dispute of whatever kind shall be final.

The Auctioneer requests special attention to Condition No. 5.
