June 2nd, 1910.

Dear Mrs. Fordham,

I imagine that you have heard all about the new Suffrage Bill to be introduced on the 14th of June, but perhaps you have not seen the full accounts of the matter which are published in the last and current issues of "Votes for Women". Accordingly, I am sending you today copies of the paper for May 27th and June 3rd.

There seems to be a very good prospect that the bill will be carried, especially as three members of the Cabinet have already openly expressed their support of the Conciliation Committee's proposals. In view of this hope of early action on the Suffrage question, the Women's Procession on June 18th becomes even more important.

I wonder if we may look forward to having you with us in the Procession on that day? I do hope that you and many other supporters of Woman Suffrage from your district will join the Procession. Enclosed is a handbill giving some account of the arrangements, but you will find the matter even more fully dealt with in "Votes for Women".

There is a very great demand for Albert Hall tickets, but if you are able to come to the meeting, I can send you one of the tickets which I have got in reserve to supply to those whom I particularly want to see at the meeting.

With kind regards.

Yours sincerely,

Christabel Pankhurst

Mrs. Fordham,
