Dear Mr. Alnissin,

I am indeed thankful to hear you have had a reassuring telegram about your brother in Mesopotamia. It must take a great weight off your mind

Mr. Alnissin. As I go to Sidmouth tomorrow & on to Exmouth, not returning to London till Saturday. I shall not see her this week, but I shall hope to do so early next week. I have not heard yet of any answer from C. E. M. about our offer to see her at the office on Monday.

I cannot see anything in yesterday's or today's paper about Sir E. Cassin's motion so I cannot think there is any prospect of its coming on this week:

if it does I think we have quite a good reserve of people to take

Mr Sussart's place, namely

Mr Macke, Mr Sturtin &

Mr Palliser

About your season ticket, I will be guided by your wishes but I do very strongly feel that the Excise ought to be maintained in have never acted on the resolution which was unanimously adopted on the day in March 1915 when you kindly agreed to accept the Hon Sec. ship.

I have a card from Miss Lane with the message "no chance of my being able to go" L. H. H. C.

Yours very sincerely

M. J. Fawcett
