is only one drawback ^{to my enjoyment} & that is your absence; but I do know very much indeed that now you are really feeling better and that complete recovery cannot be far off.

I have been writing my name in a number of copies of Warris's Visions. After a number I have had a little motto thing done in verse.

Joy's out here in the day.

You feel that is so true & that we have had a really lonely time over our work feeling it was a sort of development year by year. I think you must have felt that too. Ray has done more with the help of Sir Norton
