

VISCOUNT CECIL

16, South Eaton Place,
S.W. 1.

AL/1664

10th February, 1933.

Dear Mrs. Strachey,

If I could only find some decent excuse for doing so I would certainly say "no" ruthlessly. But, unfortunately, I cannot find one, so I suppose I must accept. Seriously, I should like to do anything I could to show an interest in the legal activities of women, though I am afraid they do not come to very much. I shall expect you to provide me with all the materials for making any observations that you want me to make.

Yours ever,

Cecil
