

Dr Wilks' petition
to the King George V, 21, IX, 12

To The King's Most Excellent Majesty,
Balmoral Castle,
Scotland.

4234

Sire,

May it please your Majesty -

As one of your loyal Subjects, but without other means of approach or present representation, I humbly claim, under "The Bill of Rights" and other Constitutional precedents, to present to Your Majesty the following grievance.

My Husband, Mark Wilks, has been arrested, and is now in Your Majesty's Prison, Brixton, London, for inability to pay the Income Tax on my income.

The details of the case are set out on the enclosed leaflet.

Having no other remedy I most respectfully hope that this case may be considered by Your Majesty, in accordance with the Established Rights of your loyal Subjects.

I am, Sire,
Your Majesty's most faithful
& devoted Subject.

M.D. B.Sc.

47 Upper Clapton Road,
London. N.E.

31st. Sept. 1912.

Enclos. Leaflet.

COPY FOR 4

COPY SENT TO 10
Dr. Wilks
Wilks file.
W.S.P.U. London
W.S.P.U. Lond. file

To The King's Most Excellent Majesty,
Balmoral Castle,
Scotland.

4234

Sire,

May it please your Majesty -

As one of your loyal Subjects, but without other means of approach or present representation, I humbly claim, under "The Bill of Rights" and other Constitutional precedents, to present to Your Majesty the following grievance.

My Husband, Mark Wilks, has been arrested, and is now in Your Majesty's Prison, Brixton, London, for inability to pay the Income Tax on my income.

The details of the case are set out on the enclosed leaflet.

Having no other remedy I most respectfully hope that this case may be considered by Your Majesty, in accordance with the Established Rights of your loyal Subjects.

I am, Sire,
Your Majesty's most faithful
& devoted Subject.

47 Upper Clayton Road,
London. N.E.

M.D. B.Sc.

Sist. Sept. 1918.

Enclos. Leaflet.

Pawcett Library
27 Wilfred Street
London S.W.1.

1 head 515

copy 1