

2. Adelaide

The Duchess of Gloucester feels obliged to Miss Lloyd for having asked for her patronage to a Sale of ^{wool} ~~wool~~ work for the Benefit of the distressed Weavers of Spitalfields, which she is most willing to grant in the hope

Adelaide

that the generous exertions of the ladies of London will prove as successful as those of their benevolent Sisters of Brighton.

The Duke begs, to let you know, when the proposed sale is to take place and what day is fixed for it.
