My dear Madam

AL/2136

I learn from my cousin, Miss Rankin, that Mr. Rueligh of Portsmouth is in want of a governess for her little boys. I am anxious to hear of a situation for my friend, Miss Comar, who has succeeded remarkably well in the teaching & training of boys, - Mr. W^m Greg's sons & others.
Miss C. is about 29 years of age,
I believe, - has a cheerful temper & manners, & other qualifications which make her friends think it a pity that she should not be occupied in the training of boys.

If you think it probable that Mrs. Eulleigh is not yet suited, & that she would like to hear more of Miss Cannon, would you have the kindness to put some of us into communication on the subject? - Miss C. has last had £80 pr. an. as salary, but I do not suppose that she would be stiff about money, if her prospect of comfort & usefulness was otherwise fair. - Her address is "10. Elm Terrace, Higher Ardwick, Manchester."

My address will be, till the 21st, at "G. R. Porter's Esq. Putney Heath."

And after that, at Miss Duckworth's, "11. Hyde Park St., Hyde Park."

I was glad to have a sight of Hilary, for a few minutes, one evg lately. A letter from Mr. Bracebridge arrived, via ~~London~~ ^{London}, just too late for me to communicate with the Egyptian party, before they left London. I hope Mr. B. may some day hear that that he & Mrs. B. may not suppose me negligent of their interests. As Mr. Lane is now in London, & our friends will certainly see our Consul Gen^l at Cairo, Mr Murray, I could not have done them any good by introductions:

but I would have endeavoured to see them, if Mr. N's letter had come in time. - I am glad to find that Mary is going to Paris.
With love & best wishes to her,
I am, dear Madam, truly yours
Harriet Martineau.
