Dear Miss Gurney
I have collected about the Bristol College at one, and enclose two more now. which show the relation <sup>fit</sup> of our Association for the Higher Education of Women.
Yours truly
Fawcett

very nice lady who would receive I think as boards
you know of any one who would
I enclose

It has opened with fully 300 students - of whom about 100 attend the day, and 200 the evening lectures. In the day lectures the ladies are much preponderate,
except in the Chemistry and Laboratory work

only one lady attending the chemistry class -

are a few women, but the great majority are men. I can only send the numbers in this
approximate way,
as the students are still coming in - and the statistics of the College are not yet complete

Believe me

Very truly yours

Catherine Winchwood

by the Society. We have
