

Berlin W. May 26, 1864
March 11th 1864

My dear Kelly,

AL/3864

I am much rejoiced
by your letter with the announcement of your trip to Germany.

Both she and I shall be at Berlin up to the end of April and are looking forward to your visit at Berlin.

I cannot ask you to stay with us,
because I have no beds for two people, though a pretty big spare room, but

I hope you will come to meals with us whenever you find it convenient and we shall enjoy joining you in some excursions on the theatres.

When you reach Leipzig you will let me know the time of your arrival and also at what hotel or pension you are going to alight. As regards of the latter, there is a very nice one in our house, the floor just over us, at Fr. von Kumbel, where I had my usual meals when moving over here. I am not quite sure though, if she will still be here at the time of your coming.

Should you think of coming to her, let me know, and I will inform you, whether she will be available and what her terms are.

Goodbye for the present,
Yours affectionately
A. von Cotta
