Dear Miss Prachey

I didn't fulfil my promise to speak at Chelsea yesterday; day; I tried, but found the fog made it impossible and telegraphed to that effect. This morning I am writing to Mr. Southgate, and to the lady who kindly asked me to dinner.

I am sorry to say I can't attend the meeting on Wednesday. The first Wednesday of the month, at 3, is the regular meeting time of the anti sweating League executive, and I must not desert it. The regular meeting is the third Wednesday, isn't it?

Yours very truly

Clementina Black

I told Mr. Southwell I consider I've been another evening
