

5409

Brunswick House
Clifton Gardens
W
Jan. 3. 13.

Dear Miss Bellamyhurst

You may suppose
I have been following all your doings with very great interest & I was only sorry that the Luffafette was not able to give more exact details as to dates.
I see now, however, that next Tuesday will find you in the Criminal Court, & I feel I must just send you a line of good wishes for that day & also add my thanks to that of so many others for all the hard & disagreeable work which you have apparently been doing. I did hope your remand would have been more prolonged, in which case I was going to ask you to come to lunch with me at Eustace Miles (or wherever you like) before the Pavilion Meeting next Monday. Under the ~~circum~~ circumstances I can scarcely expect you to spare the time, though I should be delighted if you could & I would meet you at Charley's

at the hour you name Any way, I hope to "shake a paw" if you are at the at home &
I am going to try to find out how to get to the Court in time on Tuesday, for the sake of Auld Lang Syne!

I am sure you
you are fearfully busy so I must not worry
you with a long letter.
If you can come on Monday just send a post-card, otherwise

of course you need not trouble writing

With kind regards to your mother & the sincerest of good wishes to yourself

Y<sup>r</sup> sympathetically
"Mar."

Fawcett Library
27 Wilfred Street
London S.W.1.

908