Dear Mr Bentinck,

I have read your sketch and like the idea of it - so much. I wonder whether you will consider it very presump-tuous of me to make a few alterations in it? They would be almost-wholly Mr. M's, just in order to bring it into line with the tone of the paper.

If you agree, I will make them in pencil on the MS. & send it to you before having it printed.
If you would rather keep it-as it is and send it elsewhere, I shall of course appreciate your feeling and return it at once.

But I hope you won't do that, for I should so like to have it, and I think it is most good if you to send it to me.

Curiously enough, you have chosen almost the idea I was going to embody in a sketch myself. It was suggested to me by a valued charwoman who gave me a rightful notice to leave, and when pressed for a reason, said - "Well, there! It's because of Mr Smith's meals!" - Mr Smith being her husband. It struck me that - "Mr Smith's meals" rule the world!

Yours sincerely

Evelyn Sharp
