Dear Miss Somerville

The only good account which I know of Miss Hill's work is contained in her "Homes for the London Poor" - about 1870. (Macmillan). but the English edition is out of print I believe. I do not know whether the American edition is still to be had, it is published by the "State Charities Aid Association" at

52 East 20th Street

New York.

That is the address on the Edition I have but there must be some London firm who sells this American Edition. —

Why not write direct to her?

Her address is 190 Marglebone Road, N.W. she may have written something else. — I do the work but do not write about it, so if anyone would like to see what is being done in London, they can be taken around by one of my lady workers if your correspondents are coming to London. —

yours in haste

Emma Couss.

P.S. I have been too busy lately to be able to spare time to come to the S.C.C. — I regret to say. —
