Ordinance no. 24 of the Department of the Interior, to amend the Regulations for the administration of the Factory Act¹. Dated 24th June, 1930.

The following amendment shall be made in the Regulations for the administration of the Factory Act:—

In section 3, the words "In silk filature by machinery" shall be deleted².

Additional provision.

This Ordinance shall come into operation on 1st July, 1930.

² Section 3 of the consolidated text of the Regulations for the administration of the Factory Act as published in 1926 should read as follows:—

"3. In silk filature by machinery, in spinning, and in the manufacture of woven silk goods for export in the factories specified for the purpose by a notification of the prefectural governor, the occupier may extend the daily working hours of persons under sixteen years of age or of women to 12 hours till 31st August, 1931. Nevertheless, this rule shall not apply if he divides the workers into two or more shifts and sets them to work alternately."
