Dear Mrs Stracey

I think the cheapest and best man to send your boy's violin to repair, is Boullangier in Fifth Street, Soho; I do not know his number, but he is the only instrument maker in that street.
If you wish me I will call there when he has the violin, and see that he does the things properly.

Your letter is also dated the 11.th I was far north at the time and only came back Friday evening. So don't think me lazy, for this time, at least.

I am half frozen
by this weather,
and hate putting my nose out of door. Your letter
speaks of a mild
winter - alas! gone!
Hoping you and your family keep well withstanding, believe me

Very sincerely yours
Alfred Pratts
