LONDON E.C.

18th. August. 1909.

Dear Mrs. Cavendish Bentinck,

I forgot to say when I sent you the proofs of your article that I propose to put your name to it in the usual way unless you object. Please send me a telegram on receipt of this if you do object. If I do not hear from you by to-morrow night, I will assume that your name may be used.

I was also so busy that I could not write and ask you to forgive my having altered your M.SS. a little, and also for having left some sections out. As it is, I shall have to split it up into two. It was so interesting that I thought it might well run into two numbers.

With kindest regards,
Yours very sincerely,

W. H. Murray
