Dear Pippa,

Could you possibly tell me of a hostel where I might be able to get a bed for one night for our excellent good refugee, Agnes Grünfeldt? She is to go to Frodsham in Cheshire, to some friends she has there, for part of her holiday, & I want her to sleep a night in London on the way, so as to get an early start, as travelling is so difficult - & I haven't got a single friend left in London of whom I can ask this favour!

(We are all dead or in the country). Agnes may be able to get a bed into a fellow refuge, but I think this seems rather doubtful, & if you should know of any address where I can apply, I should be most grateful. We go to Bononema on Feb 6 /w a a fortnight, & I hope she will also start on the 6th. I hope you prosper - we are all well here, tho' we have 16° of frost today - more than enough!
Yours affly
Barbara Stephen
