June 16 : 1918:

Dear Miss Solomon,

I am to make "positively my last appearance" (I hope) in the Bankruptcy Court on Tuesday at 11 o'clock, to complete what they call my public examination, after which I can apply for the annulment of the bankruptcy. As I shall then be able to open a banking acct. again, would you very kindly let we know where my presentation money is so that I can do this without delay? I am going away next Monday, the 24th, for a month ~ there would be no hurry about it.

It would be very nice to see you in the Court on Tuesday, but I hardly like to suggest it as I know how busy you are anyhow. I know you will be there in spirit + will wish me luck!

Yours ever
Evelyn Sharp
