February 1848

Dec. 13

Dear Sir

I fear that nothing
would be my help
to me except transfer ring me to the first or second Sunday in Feb. If the engagements of the lecturers for those days render the exchange absolutely impossible I must try to keep to the day fixed but it will be a considerable risk for me to leave Bournemouth for London then and I say you so much. From your very travelling that I could not go up and down again. You will kindly let me have one line again before the 27th

Yours truly

Isabella Bishop
