Dear Miss Phillips

In answer to your inquiry concerning East Grinstead, it is true that we had a branch there some time ago with Miss Fairbridge as the local honorary secretary. Owing however to the distance from town and the resignation of Miss Fairbridge we decided that it was not really practicable for us to carry on the society. Miss Corbett thereupon, since she was living in the locality, attempted to save the society for the National Union and we were under the impression that she had succeeded, having secured the services of Mrs Richards as secretary. In this however we are evidently mistaken. We could perhaps help you with the names and addresses of some of our members who reside in the neighbourhood if they would be of any service to you.

Yours sincerely
