Dear Mrs Fawcett -

I am doing my best. Gerald Balfour will vote straight when the moment comes, but will not commit himself to a ballot, not being enthusiastic. I wish you wd write a line to Walter Wolmer just before the House meets, he can get at Arthur in the House, & act as go. between with the Conservatives. My other efforts have been directed to Mr Finlay, who I fear will go no further than obtaining fr. voting, he follows his leaders in the matter, & oddly eno. the Unionist leaders are mostly agd us.

There are, I hear, to be no private members meetings between this & Xmas, the time is to be all taken by the Gov. &

I hope Lady Elizabeth's, Mr Biddulph was among the members written to, fr

One will "gar his work".
I wish we cd fall into the hands of some really good & well known M. P. our champions are rather pitiful.
I fear "the thirty" will answer as a whole "wait till a more convenient season".

Yrs sincerely

Ranese Balfour
