by our huis Labor.

I am glad that you
were pleased with the notice of your book - Had I done it myself - I should I think have put the commencement a little more strong - as must and I like it -

When at Mr Percival Denton's the other day he said you were coming to London soon - His Mr Dimmey

confirms - will you
spare a few days for us? I shall be most glad to know you
better - & that you should know by wife & chicks -

A fair friend of mine & townsman
Yours Miss Parr has

just written for me an article on Mr. Faskell have you ever tried your hand - or thought of article writing? - It is however I fear less commemorative than novel writing -

Love by our Miss Fobn
Faithfully Yours
