My dear Pippo

The P.P. was not to be resisted but has been made easy and no poem is attached. *
 Mon pictures are sent in a separate parcel - some of the kodaks are rather amusing especially the hias-matic spectic of Oliver on a bicycle - I may tell you that this one is not by me but of me being supposed to be my portratt taken by May Huddleston. The others

A key of one group is attached.
In the Nohatas photographs the cross legged god is coming and the other Cargill - the best ones I took of Nohatas I unluckily broke the plates.

Stone was here on Saturday on inspection. I attacked him on the subject of promotion & it appears that Kenyon is to get the next and I the one after which will probably be August or thereabouts as it is reported that Collett who is at home on leave is not coming back.

It is not so easy to escape from the raldom as one would imagine and again several hours have been wasted in decoration which should have been spent in questing for something to write -

I must now go and draw lamp rooms so must quit -

All is well though uneventful - Many thanks for the Spectator which arrived last mail -

love to all

Both great & small
