January: 25: 1933:

Dear Madam,

I shall not arrive in Bolton till late on Thursday evening and shall be leaving directly after the luncheon, but I do not like to refuse anything to a fellow journalist, so I wonder if you

The moment I was only married a week ago to-day! your sincerely Edger Shart would ring me up at ^{9/31/54} my hostess's house

Mrs Taylor, Blomfield, Heaton, (Tel. 80),

either between 9 and 10 p.m. on Thursday,
or on Friday morning?
Perhaps I could see you there on Friday morning, or come to your office on my way to the luncheon.
But you know I have no ideas in my head at-
