Dear Madam,

I am desired by the Committee of the National Union to forward you the enclosed copy of a letter which, by kind permission of the London Society, is an adaptation of one sent by them to the Local Press, with an urgent request that you will, wherever possible, send either it, or a letter of a similar nature to your local paper or papers for publication in the course of the week.

Yours truly,

(Signed) T. G. WHITEHEAD.

URGENT

P.S.

It is particularly requested that those Societies who had "Voters' Petition" Banners made for the Trafalgar Square Demonstration should send them (without their poles) immediately to Miss Lowndes, 259 King's Road, Chelsea, for use at the Albert Hall Meeting on Saturday evening, November 12th.
