Dear Miss Tabor.

Printers are the plague of Publishers lives for they will either proceed too rapidly or too slowly. The happy medium rarely being attained.
I have sent to the Printer strict injunctions to be more expeditious. I am just leaving London for a brief holiday with my eldest boy who goes with me for a Quaker in Cornwall but as he returns to Eton on the 25th it leaves us but little time.

I have been quite upset this morning at parting with my third boy Herbert who has started ~~this morning~~ for a School in Prussia. I scarcely knew what the wrench w^d. be till I had really to say farewell.

Thau great pleasure in sending some autographs for y^r friend.

Most truly Yrs.

H. Blackett.
