Dear Mrs Fawcett,

Just a word to acknowledge the very kind letter you have sent from the National Union. The division on Lord Selborne's Bill was much better than I expected and the debate certainly seems to have produced an impression.

Perhaps we attribute too much to it - if we assume that Mrs Wood's wonderful letter is one of its consequences. I was glad to read your reply to her this morning.

Yours very faithfully

Caroline of Benwith
