EVERSEBY RECTORY,

WINCHFIELD.

Dear Madam

I thank you sincerely
for your too - kind letter, for the very graceful expression of your own W.
You have done me the honour to send me. It is a solid comfort, in such a world as this, to find that my kind of music have found a

Confucial soil in their hearts, & have given them, if only pleasure: Still more if they have called out in such a fit a response & find its root in noble & useful ends.

Believe me, dear Madam
your sincere friend
Ruggles

P.S. I have not the honor of being known of Dr. or, even an honorary one: but only of Charles.
