Dearest P.

Many thanks for welcome & unexpected cheque. I shall buy a motor-car with it.

Also, your letter was very welcome. The horrors of London sound appalling. Personally I have no fear of war, or of incidents.
Mr. C. is evidently determined on peace at any price, especially if the price is to be paid by someone else. He may be right. It depends,

I suppose, on whether the Germans can exorcize the devil for themselves.

I have had an offer to rent Rook Field till Xmas. & I suppose it is my duty on financial grounds to accept, though I hate the thought of it. It will perhaps enable me to go to Lucerne next Summer.

I am very hard worked here, but Frank is a charming pupil, slogging away & obviously enjoying it. There is some alarm about his eyes, & he has gone to-day to an oculist. I hope the results will be good

I highly commend your strength of mind in staying away so long.
Yrs. NCS.
