Dear Mr. Fawcett,

My correspondence with Mr. Asquith will I hope be in tomorrow's papers. His answer is characteristically brief but it is quite satisfactory and maybe taken as a full endorsement of the facts stated in my letter to him. Mr. Lloyd George is quietly put aside & there can no longer be any question that the promise was given to our Bill & will be fulfilled

Please return in due course.

I wrote to him the very day that I read Lloyd George's answer in the papers, and a second letter the following day (wh: I am not publishing) but owing to the strike disturbance I could not extract an answer fr: the P.M. till today

Believe me

Yours sincerely

Lytton
